Notes

This all started as a personal list so that I could find the specific article or picture that I was looking for, when I needed it during the middle of a game. I needed a list of what had appeared and where, for those rules references and essential moments when I was about to mail order a specific model and need a picture and the item code. I actually started this with the very first magazines that I got, which is great as I dont think that I would like to go through the magazines and start this from scratch today. As it grew

I handed it out to various people and everyone found it very useful, until one guy suggested that I add it to the web site as it was a good resource. So, here it is. Feel free to use it however you want, and let others know that it is here. It is a complete list of every article, rules addition and even mail order page that has appeared in Epic Magazine and Epic Firepower Magazine. The only things that have not been listed are the mailbag letters.
